

Case 20 – GOJ, Very Hard

Diagnosis – Gastric band too tight

If no gastric band slippage is detected, and particularly if the band has recently been inserted and/or inflated, dysphagia can be due to the band being too tight. In this case, partial deflation led to successful reduction in hold up at the level of the band.