

B.S.G. : Clinical Governance
→ clinical research & imaging technologies / Care algorithms.

Special Interest Group in Gastrointestinal & Abdominal Radiology

Thursday 25th February 1999

10.30 am Registration and coffee

11.00 am Welcome

Colorectal Cancer Screening
Chair - Dr P J Shorvon

11.05 am Pathological Basis for Colorectal Cancer Screening
Dr C I Bartram, Consultant Radiologist St Marks Hospital

11.15 am The National Colorectal Cancer Screening Programme -
Where is Radiology now?
Professor J Weir, Dean of faculty of Clinical Radiology and vice president of the RCR.

11.25 am The Barium Enema and Colorectal Cancer Screening
Dr C I Bartram, Consultant Radiologist, St Mark's Hospital, London.

11.50 am Strategies, Standards and Quality
Dr A H Chapman, Consultant Radiologist, St James's Hospital Leeds.

12.10 pm CT Colonography - is it a viable alternative?
Dr C L Kay, Consultant Radiologist, Bradford Royal Infirmary.

12.20 pm The Impact of a Screening Programme on Radiologists
Dr J Fielding, Consultant Radiologist, The Royal Shrewsbury Hospital and Chairman RCR Breast Group.

12.30 pm Discussion

1.00 pm Politics
Chair - Dr D F Martin

2.00 pm What is G.I Radiology
Dr R Frost, Consultant Radiologist, Salisbury District Hospital.
Chairman: Dr R Frost, Salisbury District Hospital. (Frost) for discussion.

2.30 pm Interfaces with the RCR and Subspeciality Training
Professor P Armstrong, President Royal College of Radiologists

3.30 pm

COFFEE

4.00 pm

European Perspective
Dr G Hurley, Meath Hospital, Dublin

4.30 pm

Case Presentations and Innovations in G.I Radiology

5.30 pm

BAR

7.30 pm

DINNER

Friday 26th February 1999

9.00 am Business Meeting

Perianal Sepsis
Chairman- Dr P Rodgers

10.00 am What the Surgeon Needs to Know
Mr W Kimiot, Consultant Surgeon, Guys & St Thomas's & Hospital, London

10.20 am MRI of Perianal Fistulae
Dr J A Spencer, Consultant Radiologist, St James's University Hospital, Leeds

10.40 am Endoanal Imaging of Perineal Disease.
Dr S Halligan, Consultant Radiologist, St Mark's Hospital, London

11.00 am COFFEE

Oesophageal Cancer
Chair - Dr M B Sheridan

11.30 am CT - Staging
Dr A G Chalmers, Consultant Radiologist, Leeds General Infirmary

11.50 am A Critical Analysis of EUS in Current Surgical Practice
Mr Jonathan Vickers, University Department of Surgery, Bristol Royal Infirmary

12.15 pm Chemoradiotherapy - Is curative surgery obsolete?
Dr A Crellin, Consultant Radiotherapist, Cookridge Hospital, Leeds

12.35 pm Oesophageal Stenting - The Difficult Bits
Dr A A Nicholson, Consultant Radiologist, Hull Royal Infirmary

1.00 pm CLOSE OF MEETING

* RCR - CME Credits applied for.